Dear Long Term Load Forecasting Stakeholders:

Re: Future Demand and Energy Outlook (2009 – 2029) Release and Presentation

The AESO anticipates posting the Future Demand and Energy Outlook (2008 – 2028) to our website in the month of December. At that time we will also invite all interested stakeholders to an information session scheduled for January to provide further background and an opportunity for stakeholders to clarify their understanding of the report.

If you have any questions about the FC2009 or any other long term load forecasting items, please contact me at ph: 403-539-2555 or via e-mail at larhonda.papworth@aeso.ca or forecast@aeso.ca. Alternatively, please contact Rob Baker, Manager Forecasting Services at ph: 403-539-2614 or rob.baker@aeso.ca

Sincerely,
