

Jim Graham, Regional Advisor

November 2008

Mr. Jim Graham has been involved in Alberta's education system for 35 years as a teacher and as a school and district administrator. He is currently a self-employed educational consultant contracting to Alberta Education, post secondary institutions and school districts.

Mr. Graham has been involved at many levels of the education system. He has served as Director for the Calgary Regional Consortium, Regional Chairperson for Headwaters Student Health Partnership and Founding Member of the Curriculum Leadership Group – Foothills School Division.

In addition, Mr. Graham has served on several community boards including Literacy for Life and the Town of High River Planning Commission.

The Alberta Electric System Operator is Canada's first customer-focused exchange for electricity. As an independent system operator, the AESO leads the safe, reliable and economic planning and development of Alberta's interconnected power system. The AESO also facilitates Alberta's competitive wholesale electricity market, which has about 200 participants and approximately $8 billion in annual energy transactions.