Transmission Must-Run Reference Price Subsection 5(1)
Capital Power Corporation (“Capital Power”) Capital Power reiterates its previously submitted comments on September 28, 2018 regarding the calculation of the transmission must-run reference price. The formula should be updated to reflect the cost of carbon emissions and other variable costs related to production and the provision of this service. Section 5 – Transmission Must-Run Reference Price <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amend the formula to include the production costs of the reference technology selected in determining CONE. 	The AESO does not agree with Capital Power’s suggested change, as it is outside the scope of required ISO rule amendments for the implementation of the capacity market.
